Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David G. Dolezal on 06/09/2005.

The application has been amended as follows: change last line of claim 18 to "the first configuration includes an additional transistor not found in the second configuration."

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: in combination with other limitations of the claims, the cited prior arts fail to teach the predetermined amount is at least one fourth or greater of a gate-to-source voltage of the additional transistor, as recited in amended claims 1 and 29; the cited prior arts also fail to teach a stress reduction transistor having a first current terminal coupled to the current terminal of the transistor and a second current terminal coupled to an output of the first inverter or an output of the second inverter, as recited in amended claim 8; the cited prior arts also fail to teach the second voltage source powers up before the first voltage source, as recited in amended claim 17; the cited prior arts also fail to teach the first configuration includes an additional transistor not found in the second configuration, as recited in amended claims 18 and 33; the cited prior arts also fail to teach the first transistor has a gate dielectric of a different thickness than a gate dielectric of the second transistor, as recited in amended claim 27; the cited prior arts also fail to teach the first transistor has a strength different from a strength of the second transistor by at least a predetermined amount, as recited in amended claim 28; and the cited prior arts also fail to teach the additional transistor includes a drain and a gate, the gate being connected to the drain, as recited in amended claims 32 and 34.

3. Claims 1-29, 32-39 and 41-44 are now in condition for allowance.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
